1. So many can state the problems, so many can state the problems so articulately but they cannot see the answers. They cannot see the answer, they cannot see Me, they cannot see that the answer is in Me, and the answers that they seek are in Me. I am there. I am there. I am ever there, awaiting and looking at Me, to Me for the answers that they seek. They must come through Me. They must come to Me. They must come to Me and through Me for what they want.

2. I am Jehovah Jireh. I am Provision. I am Provision and so much more. I am wisdom, knowledge, and understanding and I am all that I am.

3. And all that I am, I open this day to those who will come and sit at My feet and learn simply to speak with Me—to pour themselves out before Me so that I can pour Myself out before them, so that they can pour themselves into Me so that I can pour Myself into them—the great exchange, Ted, the great exchange, the exchange of hearts, the inner exchange of more than values, more than principles, more than formulas; but Me, Me, My heart, My life, My breath, Me, and what makes Me up, what makes Me Me—who I am, and My great love that permeates every molecule and every cell of life as designed by Me.

4. I love you and I give you praise for coming to Me and I give you praise oh listener, reader, hearer, you who will listen, read, ponder, glean, decide, act upon these words. I am calling you today. I am calling your name.

5. I am calling your name and I am calling your new name. And I am calling you- to call your new name- if you will come to Me, if you will come to Me, see Me in these words, see My call to you, see My desire to bless you, to praise you, to glorify you and that which I have for you to do, to be, to operate in, to become, to see, to hear, to feel, to become, to reproduce.

6. I love you and I give you praise. I give you honor and I give you glory. Because when you give Me praise and honor and glory, I come into your presence; and I come with who I am, what I am, and I am praise and honor and glory to The Father, to The Father, we are One.
